Dear Jie Shen,

INVITATION LETTER

We are pleased to invite you to the 2026 Annual Conference of the Asian Association for Public Administration (AAPA) “Rethinking Asian Public Administration in a Fragmented World: Inclusion, Resilience and Sustainability” as a presenter for your paper abstract titled Analysis of Value co-creation behavior coordination mechanism of the Regional Science and Innovation Corridor Innovation Ecosystems in the Digital Era. The conference will be held in-person on 28 to 31 October 2026 at the Nanyang Executive Centre, Nanyang Technological University, Singapore (NTU) and seeks to examine the historical experiences and future trajectories of Asian public administration in an increasingly complex global environment. This conference is a collaboration between the Nanyang Centre for Public Administration at NTU and School of Public Policy and Management at Tsinghua University.

[Important Note on Registration] As conference registration is compulsory, please kindly confirm your physical participation by completing the registration form via ConfTool by 30 September 2026 (Wednesday). Should you require further help with regards to visa applications or have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact us at ncpa-research@ntu.edu.sg. Once again, the conference committee thank you for your interest in the 2026 Annual Conference of the Asian Association for Public Administration.

Jie Shen will be responsible for all expenses related to the conference registration, accommodation, and flight fares. As a conference participant, [he/she] will not receive any financial benefits from the conference organizers or the NCPA.

We look forward to hearing your presentation and welcoming you to Singapore.

Yours sincerely,

Professor LIU Hong
Director (Research & Executive Education), Nanyang Centre for Public Administration (NCPA)
Executive Director, Lien Ying Chow Legacy Fellowship
Associate Vice President (International Engagement), Nanyang Technological University
